JOB SEEKERS: Many Employment and Training Agencies affiliated with Hennepin County will be referring candidates to this event. Currently there are many candidates including: dislocated workers, unemployed workers with a variety of skills and veterans looking for work. Many of these individuals have significant training and work experience. Last year our job fairs drew on average about 300 candidates per event. In addition to referrals from these agencies we will advertise via the internet and in newspapers. This event is open to the public; there is no admission charge for job seekers.

BOOTHS: Job Fair Booths include a 6 foot draped table, 2 chairs and a 7" x 44" one line company identification sign. Special exhibit equipment and services (including electrical service) will be available through the job fair coordinator on request.

JOB DESCRIPTIONS: Employers will be asked to list available openings on a survey form included with job fair confirmation materials.

PRIVATE INTERVIEWS: Separate space is provided for company representatives to conduct candidate interviews.

LUNCH: A complimentary lunch will be provided for company representatives from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

FREE PARKING: Available in Mall of America East Ramp.

BOOTH RESERVATIONS: Booth space is limited, so early registration is encouraged!
